Consignor Agreement

All items accepted for consignment at Liberty's Consigned Finds must adhere to the following guidelines:

*All items must have been purchased within the last 2 years.

*All items must be name brand & in season.

*All clothing items MUST be freshly washed or dry cleaned & folded neatly in baskets, tubs or shopping bags.

ITEMS SHOVED IN TRASH BAGS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED!

*All shoes & purses must be clean inside & out. All home goods must be clean & dust free.

ITEMS THAT DO NOT ADHERE TO THESE GUIDELINES WILL AUTOMATICALLY BE RETURNED!

Liberty's Consigned Finds staff reserves the right to decline any items for inventory.

We will always select items that we feel will sell in our store.

However, if we do decline your items PLEASE do not argue with our staff.

Items accepted for consignment will remain on the sales floor for 2 full months. The first month items are full price, the last two weeks of the 2nd month items will be sold for 50% off the original price. However, Liberty's Consigned Finds reserves the right to mark down items at any time.

At the end of the 2nd month unsold items may be picked up by the consignor or donated. If the consignor chooses to pick up their unsold items, it is the responsibility of consignor to call Liberty's Consigned Finds & request their items to be pulled before the end of the 2nd month. Liberty's will not call, text or remind consignor to pick up these items. Items requested to be returned must be picked up by the 7th of the 3rd month or they will automatically be donated. If consignor does not request their unsold items to be pulled from sales floor they will automatically be donated.

Consignors will be paid 50% of the selling price on items sold. Pay period runs from the 10th to the 10th of each month and consignors may pick up cash for items sold on the 15th.

Checks will not be mailed.

Liberty's Consigned Finds will not be responsible for items that are damaged, broken, stolen or otherwise unaccounted for at the end of the consignment period.
